

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE – AKADEMISCHE LAUFBAHN

Carlotta von Maltzan

Stellenbosch University

---

Professional Experience

- Professor & Head of German since 2004, Chair of Department of Modern Foreign Languages, Stellenbosch University (2004-2010)
- Humanities Fellow (2003) and Max Kade Visiting Professor at Lafayette College, Easton, Pennsylvania, USA (2014)
- Associate Professor, German Studies & European Literature, School of Literature and Language Studies at the University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg (2001 – 2004)
- Senior Lecturer, Dept. of Modern Languages and Literatures (transferred to School of Literature and Language Studies from 2001), University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg (1999 – 2000)
- Lecturer, Dept. of German Studies (transferred to Dept. of Modern Languages and Literatures from 1993), University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg (1990 – 1998)
- Assistant Lecturer, Dept. of German Language & Literature, University of Cape Town (1987 – 1989)
- Teacher (German 1st & 3rd language and History, Religious Studies), Deutsche Internationale Schule Johannesburg (1986)
- Junior Lecturer, Dept. of German Studies, University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, (1982 -1985)

Qualifications

- PhD (German Literature), University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, 1998
- H. Dip. Ed. (Post Graduate), University of South Africa, Pretoria, 1988
- M.A. (German Literature), University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, 1985.
- B.A. Honours (German Literature), University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, 1980
- B.A. (German, History and Philosophy), University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, 1979

Grants

- NRF Rating: B3, 2014 – 2019
- National Research Foundation (NRF) Grant for “Topographies of Culture”, 2007
- DAAD Research Grant, PH Heidelberg, Germany, 2003
- Anderson Capelli-Convocation Fund Grant, 1996 and 2003
- HSRC Grant for PhD research, 1991
- University Research Committee Grant for PhD research 1990-1992, 1994

Updated 12/2016