

The Unit for the Confucius Institute Stellenbosch University

Invites you to the Annual Chinese Bridge Competition:

“Olympic Fervour”

The China Bridge competition, in its seventh year in South Africa, is an initiative aimed at promoting the understanding of Chinese language and culture and testing Chinese language proficiency of Mandarin students. The theme this year is “Olympic Fervour”.

Contestants must take a written examination, prepare an oral presentation and a performance related to the competition’s theme.

Guests will be served Chinese tea on arrival and are invited to join the participants for a finger lunch following the performances.

Date: Friday 25th April 2008

Time: 09h30 – 13h00
