Scriptura 75, 2000:4

Editor's Note – A last word
Johann Kinghorn

The heuristic key of "sustainable community"
Ernst Conradie

Contemporary European religious beliefs and practices
Loek Halman

Europe's moral beliefs
Loek Halman

Extending the materialist/post-materialist distinction
Bernard C. Lategan

An analysis of the value patterns of South African elites on selected moral issues
Hennie Kotzé

Shared values in South Africa?: A selection of value orientations in the field of personal ethics
Hennie Kotzé

NGOs, churches and the challenge of fourth generation people-centred development strategies in South Africa
Ignatius Swart & Dawid Venter
THE DUTCH REFORMED CHURCH (DRC) AND TRANSITION IN SA

The DRC's role in the context of transition in South Africa: Background of a research project and questions from a German perspective

Wolfram Weisse.................................1

Christine Anthonissen.........................17

Belhar and the white DRC: Changes in the DRC? 1974-1990

Russel Botman.................................33

The future of reformed churches in SA – some random notes and reflections

John W. de Gruchy.............................43

The influence of the DRC on public policy during the late 1980s and 1990s

Etienne de Villiers................................51

Preparing and keeping the mind-set intact: Reasons and forms of a theology of the status quo

Bernard C. Lategan.............................63

"Remembering forward and hoping backward"? Some thoughts on women and the DRC

Elna Mouton.....................................77

The DRC's role in the context of transition in South Africa: Main streams of academic research

Piet Naudé.......................................87

Reporting on the state of emergency (1985-1990) in Die Kerkbode

Annette Rosenfeld............................107

Has there been any change? On the role of the DRC 1974-1990

Dirkie Smit......................................119

The DRC: Present challenges in the light of the past response to "a socio-linguistic and theological analysis of Die Kerkbode"

Frits Gaum......................................129

Accompanying the flock – the development of the DRC 1974-1990

Willem Nicol.................................133

The "NGK": Present challenges in the light of the past. Experiences of a dissenter: An evaluation of one's own role in development within the DRC

Nico Smith......................................139
SOCIAL TRANSFORMATION AND BIBICAL INTERPRETATION

The Biblical legitimization of ethnic diversity in Apartheid Theology
Louis Jonker ........................................165

Israel en die nasies: 'n Kritiese nadenke oor die dokument Ras, Volk en Nasie
Alec Basson ........................................185

Bybelgebruik in die Belharbelydenis se artikel oor "Eenheid"
Andries Daniels ....................................193

The role of women in social transformation in the Nkhoma Synod (Malawi)
Winston R. Kawale ................................211

Women, social transformation and the Bible in Nkhoma Synod (Malawi)
Winston R. Kawale ................................225

Biblical interpretation and the role of women in the Church of Central Africa, Presbyterian
Joel Manda ..........................................239

Bible exegesis in Dutch ecclesial documents on homosexuality
Arie van der Kooij ................................251

Social transformation and Biblical interpretation: A comparative study
Louis Jonker ..........................................259

GENERAL CONTRIBUTIONS

The African foundations of Christianity: Myth or reality?
James N. Amanze ..................................273

Ethnicity and nationbuilding: A South African faith perspective from below
K.Th. August .......................................287

The Afrikaans translation of the Bible for the deaf
Bernard Combrink ..................................297

The call to rewrite the Bible: Some perspectives
Jeremy Punt .........................................303
A preface on empirical Biblical hermeneutics

Ernst M. Conradie..............................333

Biblical interpretation in established Bible study groups

Ernst M. Conradie, Hendrik L. Bosman, Louis C. Jonker.................................340

A 'thick description' of two Bible studies by the Dutch Reformed Church Ottery group

Louis C. Jonker..................................347

A 'thick description' of two Bible studies by the Sokhanya Bible School

Danie C. van Zyl.................................352

A 'thick description' of two Bible studies by the Langa Baptist group

Ernst M. Conradie...............................357

A 'thick description' of two Bible studies by the Strand Anglican group

Chuck A. Wanamaker..........................362

A 'thick description' of two Bible studies by the Belhar Anglican group

Hendrik L. Bosman..............................367

A 'thick description' of two Bible studies by the Belhar Lighthouse group

Douglas G. Lawrie..............................371

Bible study within established Bible study groups

Ernst M. Conradie, Louis C. Jonker ..........................................................381

Reading, interpretation, reinscription: three perspectives on engaging with texts

Douglas G. Lawrie....................................399

Mapping the various factors playing a role in Biblical interpretation

Louis C. Jonker.....................................418

What are interpretative strategies?

Ernst M. Conradie................................429

Biblical interpretation within the context of established Bible study groups

Ernst M. Conradie.................................442

Determining relative adequacy in Biblical interpretation

Ernst M. Conradie, Louis C. Jonker ...........448

GENERAL CONTRIBUTIONS

Praktiese teologie as hermeneuties-kritiese teologie

Elsabé Kloppers ...............................457

A comparison and evaluation of four recent works on the interpretation of the Old Testament in SA

Christo J.S. Lombaard..........................467

A South African annotation to shame in Ezekiel 16

Marietjie Odendaal.............................479
ARTICLES DERIVE FROM A CONFERENCE OF THE THEOLOGICAL SOCIETY OF SOUTH AFRICA –
WHITHER DOES THE WIND BLOW? SOUTH AFRICAN REFLECTIONS ON THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN

Some thoughts on "public theology" and its relevance for the South African context
Ronell Bezuidenhout & Piet Naudé......3

Notes on Leonardo Boff and the Filioque
Ernst M. Conradie.................................14

On the Spirit as love
Brian Gaybba ........................................25

The role of Pneumatology in the ethics of Stanley Hauerwas
Nico Koopman.................................33

The wind blows gently: reflections on the Holy Spirit in the theology of K.H. Miskotte
Ockert Meyer ........................................41

Confessing Nicea today? Critical questions from a South African perspective
Piet Naudé...........................................47

The Spirit of God: A soteriological metaphor in Biblical history and its significance for us today
Klaus Nürnberger.................................55

The Filioque problem – history and contemporary relevance
Bernd Oberdorfer ..................................81

The gift of participation: on the Triune God and the Christian moral life
Robert Vosloo ......................................93

GENERAL ARTICLES

The challenges and opportunities of a socio-rhetorical commentary
H.J. Bernard Combrink .......................106

Paul, hermeneutics and character: implications for Scripture and identity
Jeremy Punt......................................143
This edition of Scriptura is dedicated to Bernard Combrink

'n Huldeblyk aan Bernard Combrink (met publikasielys)
A tribute to Bernard Combrink (with list of publications)

Geskiedenis, geloof en die Evangelies: perspektiewe op die verhouding tussen geskiedenis en teologie in die Bybelwetenskappe

The "sense" of feminist Biblical scholarship for church and society

Narrative function of the apocalypse

Nuwere ontwikkelinge op die gebied van die geskiedskrywing

Die Kanaänitiese vrou van Matteus 15: Hervormer in eie reg

Paul's concept of salvation – culmination of an evolutionary process

Empire, Messiah and violence: a contemporary view

Isaiah in 1 Peter 3:13–17: Applying intertextuality to the study of the Old Testament in the New

Bodily parts vying for power: hierarchies and bodies in early Christianity

Whose side are you on? Structure and rhetoric in Christ's parable of the sheep and the goats

GENERAL CONTRIBUTIONS

The Christian faith as predictor of loneliness

Due to appear soon